WHOLE CHILD TENET: CHALLENGED

ALLOWABLE FEDERAL FUNDING

AP & DUAL ENROLLMENT

SELECTING INTERVENTIONS
POSSIBLE USES OF FUNDS

Promote access to dual enrollment by highlighting technical education opportunities through afterschool enrichment programming

Gifted training for AP teachers

Training of teachers to support the identification of gifted and talented students and the instructional practices that support the education of dual or concurrent enrollment students

Promote dual enrollment access to migratory children and youth

Special education teacher and paraprofessional support to provide individualized instructional supports and strategies in the AP and/or dual enrollment classroom

Provide instructional resources and assistive technology as supported by the student’s individualized education plan

AP training through College Board for teachers in schools with limited access to AP offerings

AP assessment test fees for economically disadvantaged students

Provide additional counselor for at-risk student advisement

Supplemental classroom resources for AP courses

Cost/tuition/fees of additional dual enrollment classes for economically disadvantaged or under-served students

Offer dual or concurrent enrollment programs or courses designed to help English learners achieve success in postsecondary education

Facilitate expedited evaluations for various educational services, such as AP and/or dual enrollment

Special programs to meet the unique academic needs of participating children and youth, including vocational and technical education and assistance in securing student loans or grants for postsecondary education

GaDOE.org/wholechild
wholechild@doe.k12.ga.us