Whole Child Tenet: Safe

Allowable Federal Funding

Possible Uses of Funds

- Title IV Part A
- Title V Part B
- Title IV Part B
- Title I Part A
- Title II Part A
- Title I Part C
- Title III Part A
- IDEA Part B
- McKinney-Vento
- Title I Part D

Possible Uses of Funds

- Professional development for teachers and school leaders to promote school safety through critical practices
- In-service Training for all school personnel on school safety
- Migrant parent training on various school routines that enhances their children's adaptation to new school
- Provide behavior coaches to support students with emotional or behavioral needs
- Provide intensive training to personnel to teach strategies and skills needed to support students with emotional or behavioral needs
- Professional development activities for educators and pupil services personnel working with homeless students
- Activities to address needs that may arise from domestic violence
- Professional learning for staff on creating a safe environment, combating school violence
- Cyber safety education
- Parent training on school safety
- Staff professional development on culturally responsive best practices for instruction and assessment of English learners and immigrant students
- Programs to build staff capacity to understand English learners and immigrant students' specific cultural differences and/or traumatic experiences that may have an impact on school safety
- Programs that serve children and youth returning to local schools from correctional facilities, to assist in the transition of such children and youth to the school environment, and help them remain in school to complete their education

School Safety

GaDOE.org/wholechild
wholechild@doe.k12.ga.us