ALLOWABLE FEDERAL FUNDING

SELECTING INTERVENTIONS
POSSIBLE USES OF FUNDS

Professional development for teachers and school leaders to promote student safety and well-being through critical practices

In-service Training for all school personnel on school safety, peer interaction, chronic absenteeism, drug and alcohol abuse, and how to prevent and recognize child sexual abuse

Programs to build staff capacity to understand English learners and immigrant students’ specific cultural differences and/or traumatic experiences that may have an impact on student safety and well-being

Health referral services, such as medical, dental, and mental

Defraying the excess cost of transportation in order to enable students to attend the school of origin

Payment of fees and costs associated with tracking, obtaining, and transferring records of homeless children and youth

Other extraordinary or emergency assistance needed to enable homeless students to attend school

Alcohol, tobacco, and other drug education programs

Training on recognizing signs of child abuse

Gang awareness training

Suicide prevention training

‘Protective factors’ training

Programs to build staff capacity to understand migrant children and youth specific cultural differences and/or traumatic experiences that may have an impact on their safety and well-being

Professional development for specific personnel on the types of disabilities, their manifestations, and creating a safe, inclusive environment of respect and sensitivity

The coordination of health and social, including day care, drug and alcohol counseling, and mental health services to improve the likelihood such individuals will complete their education

STUDENT SAFETY & WELL-BEING

GaDOE.org/wholechild
wholechild@doe.k12.ga.us